

2010 National Spring Conference

Prosper In Your In-House Practice

April 11 - 13, 2010
Hyatt Regency Montréal

CCCA is committed to helping our members meet their mandatory continuing legal education requirements. Attend and choose from over 20 workshops on our Spring Training Camp and 2010 National Spring Conference programs and you'll be well on your way to obtaining all of your required educational credits.

ACCREDITATION INFORMATION

Ontario	This program has been accredited by the Corporate and Commercial Law Specialty Committee of the Law Society of Upper Canada towards the professional development requirement for certification. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CCCA 2010 National Spring Conference: 7.5 hours • Spring Training Camp: 5.5 hours
Québec	The 2010 National Spring Conference and Spring Training Camp have been accredited for mandatory continuing professional development in Québec. Your attendance at the 2010 National Spring Conference "Prosper in Your In-House Practice" may be reported up to a maximum of 13.00 hours (Barreau course code is 10017721). Your attendance at the CCCA Spring Training Camp may be reported up to a maximum of 6.25 hours (Barreau course code is 10017739). Please see http://www.barreau.qc.ca/formation/ for more information.
British Columbia	2010 National Spring Conference: Attendance at this program can be listed as up to eight-and-one-half (8.50) hours of continuing education in your Annual Report to the Law Society of B.C. 2010 Spring Training Camp: Attendance at this program can be listed as up to five-and-three-quarter (5.75) hours of continuing education in your Annual Report to the Law Society of B.C.
Saskatchewan	2010 National Spring Conference: Under the new CPD Policy in Saskatchewan, attendance at this program can be reported as up to eight-and-one-half (8.50) CPD hours. Please note members are required to self-report their hours through their Member Profile on the Law Society of Saskatchewan website. Continued on page 2

	The CCCA 2010 National Spring Conference has also been accredited for one (1) loss prevention credit (LPC). The Loss Prevention Credit Program continues in effect until June 30, 2010 2010 Spring Training Camp: Under the new CPD Policy in Saskatchewan, attendance at this program can be reported as up to six (6) CPD hours. Please note members are required to self-report their hours through their Member Profile on the Law Society of Saskatchewan website.
New Brunswick	2010 National Spring Conference: Under the new CPD Policy in New Brunswick, attendance at this program can be reported as up to eight-and-one-half (8.50) CPD hours. Please note members are required to self-report their hours through the MCPD section of the Law Society of New Brunswick website. 2010 Spring Training Camp: Under the new CPD Policy in New Brunswick, attendance at this program can be reported as up to six (6.00) CPD hours. Please note members are required to self-report their hours through the MCPD section of the Law Society of New Brunswick website.
Northwest Territories	2010 National Spring Conference: Attendance at this program can be listed as up to eight-and-one-half (8.50) hours of continuing education on your CPD Report & Plan as part of your annual membership renewal with the Law Society of the Northwest Territories. 2010 Spring Training Camp: Attendance at this program can be listed as up to five-and-three-quarter (5.75) hours of continuing education on your CPD Report & Plan as part of your annual membership renewal with the Law Society of the Northwest Territories.

Canadian Corporate Counsel Association
 Association canadienne des conseillers (ères) juridiques d'entreprises